

Sarah Champagne

Contact information:

Email: sarah.champagne@usask.ca

Phone: (306) 321-4057

Address: 1257 Redwood Road
Quesnel, British Columbia
V2J 3V5

Education:

Professional Certificate in Pharmacovigilance (2022)

DNASYS Academy of Health Sciences (online)

Master of Business Administration (2015)

Edwards School of Business, University of Saskatchewan

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (2014)

Western College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Saskatchewan

Bachelor of Science, Biology (2011)

University of Northern British Columbia

Previous Employment:

Veterinary Communications Manager – Nestlé Purina Petcare (remote)

February 26, 2024 – June 27, 2025 (16 month contract)

- Responded promptly to inquiries and complete nutritional case consults for veterinary professionals through the Canadian Veterinary Resource Centre
- Provided product and technical training to field Veterinary Communication Managers and sales teams
- Collaborated on the creation of commercial support tools for veterinary professionals and end users

Technical Services Veterinarian – Vetoquinol (western Canada)

May 31, 2021 – December 22, 2023

- Responded promptly to product inquiries from veterinary professionals
- Responded to and supported the resolution of pharmacovigilance cases
- Provided product and technical training to sales, marketing, and customer services teams
- Collaborated on the creation of commercial support tools for veterinary professionals and end users
- Delivered technical presentations to veterinary customers (Lunch and Learns) and supported product promotion during travel with sales team
- Built and maintained relationships with key opinion leaders in academia and veterinary specialist practices

Manager of Veterinary Services – Charles River Laboratories (Quebec)

February 24, 2020 – July 2, 2021

- Provided professional expertise on procedures and techniques involving live animals while ensuring quality of veterinary care and general animal care including husbandry, housing, environmental needs, and social needs, in compliance with internal policies and requirements demanded by external regulatory agencies
- Provided optimal medical care for a variety of species as per accepted veterinary practices
- Adhered to Good Laboratory Practice regulations and organizational Standard Operating Procedures
- Participated in IACUC (Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee) processes including animal welfare investigations and study plan review
- Coordinated changes to operations and procedures
- Supervised veterinary technical staff (workload management, timesheet review, performance evaluations, disciplinary actions, workforce planning, and talent acquisition)

Veterinarian – Marshall Veterinary Hospital (Quesnel, BC)

August 25, 2015 – January 31, 2020

- Created and carried out diagnostic and therapeutic plans, interpreted test results, and prescribed medications
- Performed medical and surgical procedures to diagnose and treat medical conditions in companion animals
- Advised pet owners about animal health conditions including etiology, treatment options, and prognosis
- Educated pet owners about wellness and preventative care
- Supervised patient care and technical staff